CLASSROOM TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

English Teacher

Aug 2003 to June 2004

Academy of the Sacred Heart

New Orleans, LA

- American Literature (10th grade): Guided students to investigate the unique origins and characteristics of the American literary tradition through discussion, reading, and analysis. Assisted students to develop articulate expression as writers of varied essay forms (e.g. literary analysis, autobiographical, descriptive, persuasive).
- African-American Literature (12th grade): Introduced students to the African-American vernacular and literary tradition through an exploration of folk tales slave narratives, poetry, prose, and music. Investigated literature as a means of questioning and challenging assumptions about culture, history, identity, and power.
- African Literature (12th grade): Examined colonial and post-colonial African writing and literary criticism that situates itself outside of or in contrast to the traditional western canon and its underlying assumptions about culture, power, and history.

Resource Teacher/S.C.O.R.E. program (6th to 8th grade)

Sept 2000 to June 2003

Seekonk Middle School

Seekonk, MA

- Provided intensive remediation in reading, writing, and math in a pull-out program for students with language-based learning problems. Designed and delivered a modified social studies curriculum with an emphasis upon community involvement and life skills. Supplied academic support for students in inclusion classes. Assisted classroom teachers and supervised paraprofessionals in modifying curriculum materials and student assessments.

English Teacher
